Current Comment

The current issue of the Press carries a new feature, "The Sport Forum," by Dick Lynden. In his column Mr. Lynden will remark on this and that in the world of sport, and we feel that his comments will be welcomed by our readers as sincerely as he is himself welcomed to the staff of the Press. Active in sports himself, he has written gossip of the game for several years, and now he is prepared to entertain us all with choice bits gleaned from a close following of the various sporting activities.

Frequently subscribers tell us that they notice continual improvement in the home town "sheet." Coming unsolicited these remarks are music to our ears. Wedged between a dozen or more daily newspapers, the Press is at a disadvantage, but we are slowly gaining the recognition of those who realize that nothing can ever take the place of the local paper, be it weekly or daily.

Among prune growers one frequently hears that "this would be a good year to be in the association." How right they are. Co-operative selling is the only thing in the world that will stabilize the price of prunes, and as long as prunes are sold to independent packers the price will remain in doubt, with the association doing the best it can for its members. The death of the association would mean the death of the prune industry, with the independent packers picking the bones. Better for every grower to support the association; perhaps then a five cent base might become the accepted price for our wrinkled little playmate.

If you are not registered to qualify -as an elector in th November general election, no is the time to visit a regis' ation office. After Saturda' ou will be unable to register and everyone will want to v e this fall.

Faint rumblings fr m politi-cal headquarters hig at a bitter fight for the sh riff's office. It is amusing to surmise just how far eith candidate is prepared to go in his efforts to secure the coveted berth. A good deal depends upon where the handful of one-time Schuman supporters throw their votes. We believe that both Lyle and Emig will hold their friends of the primary election. Kidward's votes will probably be split between them—but Schuman's votes are pretty apt to go to Emig—not, however, without a struggle on the part of Lyle to gather them in for himself.

The rainy season seems to have a pretty good start and it is to be hoped that we'll have lots of it htis year. Snow is heavy and early in the mountains. A good fall of snow insures the non-failure of the mountain water supply, than which there is no more important factor in the lives of we valley dwellers.

With the coming of the rains it is well for motorists to look to the safety of their tires and brakes. Many accidents every winter are attributable to lack of "tread," particularly on the rear tires. Brakes that "grab" are a continual source of danger. Good tires and skilled garagemen are available in Campbell.

Duck hunters will sally forth in the morning to seek the elusive waterfowl. They are warned to stick to the limit imposed by the federal game commission, which limits a hunter to 15 ducks a day for two days in a week. The state limit is 25 ducks a day, but it had better be disregarded, as the only reason it is not the same as the federal limit is because the state legislature had adjourned before the federal ruling was made. Anyway, 15 ducks are enough for anyone except a game hog, of which there are unfortunately quite a few.

That's all.

GRANGE DISCUSSES DAYLIGHT SAVING PLAN AT MEETING

A regular meeting of the Orchard City Grange was held last Tuesday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall, with a large attendance. This meeting was a sort of open meeting for discussion of the merits and demerits of the daylight saving plan. A great many Grangers are not in favor of the plan, and here had a chance to give their reasons, among which the chief one seemed to be that the hours of daylight were just about right for the farmers to complete their work and some of them had to work nights anyway, so why try to change the time of the sun.

The lecture hour following was very entertaining and interesting, including remarks by some of the members.

O. B. Couk, at the request of the organization, will begin the collection of mony with which to purchase new sashes for the Grange officers.

Plans were discussed for the attendance at the state Grange whic h will be in session in the near future.

LOCAL BOYS PAY $20 FINES IN COURT HERE TODAY

Louis Smith and Joe Furtado appeared in court this afternoon in Odd Fellows hall, Campbell, before Judge J. R. Bell of Redwood township, Los Gatos, to answer to a charge of battery preferred by Carl Kidwell and Paul Martin, which grew out of a disturbance that occurred the evening of Sept. 6 on Dillon avenue.

The case was prosecuted by District Deputy Attorney Cottrell with George Morton testifying for the defense.

The accused were found guilty under what appeared to be somewhat extenuating circumstances and were assessed fines of $20 each, with an alternative of spending 10 days in the county jail. Both boys chose to pay the fines.

Judge Bell was on the bench at the request of Judge John Blaine.

ED HIATT JAILED ON DRUNKEN DRIVING CHARGE THIS P. M.

Ed Hiatt reposes tonight in the county jail, having been arrested in Campbell this afternoon by Officer George Barnes. Hiatt had in his possession two guns, a .38 Colt pistol and a shotgun, which were taken into the custody of the law. The charge against him is 'driving while intoxicated,' bail set at $1,000 cash or $2,000 bond. The preliminary hearing may be held in San Jose Thursday.

Camp Fire Girls Have Reunion At Y. W. C. A. San Jose, Saturday

Mrs. Louis Shelley, county executive of the Camp Fire Girls, was in charge of a reunion of over 100 girls and their parents at the Y. W. C. A. in San Jose Saturday night.

The most interesting feature of the program was moving pictures taken and shown by Dr. James Cutting, portraying the many activities and projects that were a part of Camp Wastahi this summer. The parents were delighted to observe the varied and useful things their daughters were taught to do at this camp.

Louis Shelley performed some of his sleight-of-hand deceptions for the guests. Other stunts were performed, and everyone joined in the games. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Whitman attended the grand opera in San Francisco Thursday evening.

THE NEW FORD SPORT COUPE

BUT THREE DAYS LEFT TO CAPTURE BIG VOTES

SUBSCRIPTIONS, ADVERTISING AND JOB PRINTING RECEIVED THIS PERIOD POSITIVELY THE LAST TO CARRY EXTRA VOTES.

Friday night—not one day later—marks the close of the "second period" in the Press popularity contest. After that time and for the rest of the contest only the original schedule of votes will be in effect, which means the scale of votes will be cut in half.

Now is the time to put forth your best efforts, as there is yet much to be done. Contestants who expect to win must build up a big report during this period. Every moment counts—make them count double and assure yourself of the capital prize.

The 1930 Ford Sport Coupe is here to cheer the heart of every worker in the big contest. It is surely a beauty and every one of the young women who are out to win it have been delighted with the appearance of the car. Everyone has agreed that the young lady who excels in her solicitation of subscriptions, advertising and job printing, for this paper, is going to be well paid. The handsome Majestic radio and the elegant diamond ring will not be hard to take.

From now on, of course, as heretofore, every vote counts. The race is approaching the interesting stages. Let none of those who are in it relax their efforts. At this tabulation there is not a wide difference between any of the contenders. A few more votes—a few more big orders—could put any one of them in the lead.

As stated, today's issue of the Press shows the last standing published before the close of the second period. The standing of the contestants is shown below, and a glance at the numbers opposite the names of each, will prove interesting to their many friends who are expected to lend a helping hand. The following is the official standing of the contestants:

Jessie Silberbauer	417,000
Rose Abinante	390,000
Mildred Cook	377,000
Abbie Morgan	370,500
Josephine LaBarbera	369,000
Mrs. Leonard Shadle	360,000
Pauline Johnson	105,000

SPEED WILL WIN

Wedding of Louise Smith and Clayton Willis Sunday

The Methodist church of Campbell was filled Sunday with relatives and admiring friends gathered to witness the nuptial ceremony which united Louise Smith and Clayton Willis.

Promptly at 3 o'clock Miss Miriam Blaine played the opening notes of the accompaniment of "At Dawning," followed by "O Promise Me" which were beautifully sung by Leonard Willis, brother of the groom.

The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the ushers, Charles Manlove Smith, brother of the bride and Roy Willis, brother of the groom preceding.

The maid of honor was Miss Evelyn Smith, sister of the bride, gowned in pink georgette, with picture hat of pink and a bouquet of pastel pink sweet peas.

The bridesmaids were Miss Eulah Hook and Miss Ethel Fletcher and their costumes were green and yellow net respectively, with hats and shoes to match, and they also carried arm bouquets of pink sweet peas. The young sister of the bride, little Doris Smith, acted as flower girl, scattering rose petals.

The bride was especially lovely in her bridal gown of white chiffon, made with a fitted bodice and the new long skirt. The veil which formed a short train was fastened with a back bandeau of orange blossoms to a lattice cap of pearls that becomingly framed her beautiful face.

Her bouquet was a lovely shower of white rosebuds and lilies-of-the-valley.

She was given into the care of the groom at the altar by her father.

The service was read by Rev. C. B. Sylvester of the First Methodist church of San Jose and Rev. Albert S. Buell of Campbell.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the relatives of the bridal couple.

Beautiful giant dahlias in shades of pink decorated the church and the same color was used in the home, which was lighted with pink tapers and pink shaded lamps.

The bride cut a prettily decorated cake which was served buffet style, with punch. Later Mr. and Mrs. Willis left by auto for a trip to the south.

The bride's going-away costume was a dark blue ensemble, with hat and accessories to match.

Upon their return they will be at home at 278 South Eleventh street, San Jose.

Both of these young people are well and favorably known in Campbell and San Jose. The quantities of lovely and useful gifts attest their popularity.

Mrs. Willis, who was chosen to rule the 1930 Fiesta de las Rosas, is known throughout the valley as "Queen Louise," and made many outstanding friends at that time by her sweet and gracious manner, which popularity has not affected. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Smith, South Third street, a graduate of Campbell High school and a student at the state college at San Jose for two years. The groom is a graduate of San Jose high and a musician, both vocal and instrumental. He is one of the staff of the Bank of America.

SAN JOSE BASEBALL TEAM BEATS LOCALS

The first baseball game to be played on Campbell's new diamond proved not so good for the local nine. Campbell played brilliant ball, giving the spectators their money's worth, but were nosed out by one point, The San Jose Merchants were the long end of the 10-9

Villa pitched again this day, hurling good ball all through the game, and also knocked a triple. Shelley made another sensational catch, a repeat of the previous Sunday's, when he ran back of the school to catch the ball with one hand.

The baseball season is nearly over now and Campbell ends with a very good record for the season.

Mrs. Percy Dunlap and son Robert will leave tomorrow on a two-weeks' vacation to Los Angeles, where they will visit with relatives.

RALPH H. HYDE IS PRESIDENT OF THE COMMUNITY CHEST

There will be a meeting of the new officers and directors this Friday evening at the office of the Campbell Water company to make up the budget for local requirements.

JOE McKINNON IS APPOINTED TO A NEW POSITION

Supervisor Joseph McKinnon was yesterday appointed to fill the vacancy left in the county probation committee of the juvenile court left by Mrs. Bessie McDonald, who resigned. Mr. McKinnon has accepted the appointment and will be sworn into his new duties in a few days.

The appointment ing action by Judges F. B. Welch and P. E. Gos Brown said that McKinnon was well qualified for his new job as he had been on the board of directors of the Rainbow Girls, a Masonic society, for several years and is very much interested in children and their problems. His term will expire Dec. 1, 1931.

County Federation of Women's Clubs Met At Santa Clara Friday

The picnic meeting of the County Federation of Women's Clubs held Friday in the historic plaza of Santa Clara was very pleasant and the program one of great interest.

Mrs. L. J. Carboni was in charge of the afternoon program which was on the subject of California history and landmarks. She referred to some of the old institutions of early date nearby the plaza, and mentioned an historic oak at Milliken Corners, worthy of a marker.

Mrs. H. P. Dyer of Saratoga gave a short and interesting account of the visits of Vancouver to California; Miss Jessie Williamson urged the marking of historic spots while there are those to verify their location.

Attorney John Burnett gave a talk on the highlights of the romantic history of the state.

Club presidents and members from the four Campbell clubs, Moreland Good Will, Pundita, We and Our Neighbors, and Country Woman's attending were Mesdames H. P. Bean, G. W. Page, Frederick Battee, M. E. Purmort, G. W. Burro Laura Allen, H. C. Smith a the Misses Helah Laird, An Schulte and Jessie Lewis.

The next meeting of the Federation will be on Oct. 31 at the Union club house with We and Our Neighbors as hostesses.

THE SPORT FORUM
By DICK LYNDEN

A coruscation of lightining has smitten the prizefight racket in the form of a grand jury investigation, and at least in California, has awakened the faithful, just one more time, to realization of the fact that in a filthy game it takes a reasonable amount of filth to play.

—o—

Yet, it is a conservative venture, that at least a Mediterranean of brine would be shed by the boxing public were the sport eliminated by interdictory measures. Which goes to prove that a murder or two, politely accomplished, never encounters any serious objections.

—o—

Most boxing fans admit there is ample reason for banning the game, but in the same breath are prone to recall the fallibility of reason.

—o—

The more recent heavyweight show (which type of entertainment, by some miracle, is not covered in the statute governing fraud) designed by the Garden promoters to bring Sharkey, the garrulous gob, and Vittorio Campolo together, turned out to be another financial flop, due to bad weather conditions. It is quite possible that the [illegible] can already figure the [illegible] Rickard in dollars

—o—

The Stanford football machine, a little rusty from a long period of inactivity, showed indications of power and versatility again, this time at the expense of the Olympic club. It is of no moment that they scored an 18-0 victory, but it is of interest to note that the Cards have a wealth of capable material and a "Pop" Warner to coach them.

—o—

"No more lean years," the canticle rendered by the California students for the past half decade, takes on a new significance this season since the Bears laced Santa Clara 19-7 last Saturday. But then, there is always the skeptic to remind you about teams "that start in a whirlwind and end in a puff."

—o—

From down in the "sunny southland" come rumbles of the Thundering Herd trampling U. C. L. A. under foot 52-0. Last year the Trojans trounced the same team 76-0, which may or may not indicate—

—o—

Bobby Jones, the super-golfer of all time, who won the British and American open and amateur championships, went, curiously enough, unapplauded from the field last Saturday. It seems that everyone had intuitive conviction that Jones would ultimately triumph and thereby accomplish a golfing achievement never before known to the game, so that when the thing actually occurred there was nothing but silent approval registered.

—o—

[illegible]chologists may not believe in intuition, but it is a certainty that one young man was very thoroughly convinced.

News of the Misses Alice and Lucy Joy

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil of Sept. 21, on its society page carries a picture of Miss Alice Joy with the following news note:

"Miss Alice Joy, who has been the guest of her sister, Miss Lucy Joy, returns this week to Bronxville, N. Y., where she is a member of the faculty of Sarah Lawrence college.

The Sarah Lawrence college is one of the first in this country to extend beyond the secondary schools the principles of progressive education. It is selective in choice of pupils and opens for its third year in October. Miss Joy has charge of mathematics and the physical sciences."

The Misses Joy are well known to many of the residents of Campbell as they grew to womanhood here and have visited here frequently until the past few years. They still own the home ranch on Rincon avenue.

Peter Pan Bakery Closed Sunday Nite

The Peter Pan bakery, operated by Ted Gail and family, closed its doors Sunday evening, the Gails leaving town shortly thereafter. Negotiations are under way for the resale of the business, several prospects being anxious to acquire the bakery.

Mrs. Agnes Benfield has returned to her home in San Jose after a week's visit in Los Angeles.

Colder days are coming

Gas-fired heating is clean and care-free

Colder days are coming. So plan now to have convenient warmth and comfort.

With modern gas-fired heating equipment, your finger's touch controls the heat. You make no trips to the basement on cold mornings. You build no fires. Mother does not tend the furnace when father is away.

And gas is a clean fuel. All burnt gases go outdoors through the chimney without mingling with the pure, warm air in your home.

As a result, your furniture, upholstery, and curtains stay clean. The exterior of your home does not need re-painting so often.

Come into our office or a dealer's store and see the Furnaces and Boilers for heating the entire home. There are also Floor Furnaces and Circulating Room Heaters for homes having no basement and Radiantfires for the fireplace. Just telephone and a competent heating specialist will call and gladly discuss the heating of your particular home.
